Kelly Wolfe

VP for Administration & Management

Former USAID Project Manager with over 20 years of global development experience, with an expertise in global health.

kwolfe@wice.org

Linkedin

Contact

25 Years of experience

Professional Bio:

Kelly is a dynamic and results-driven public health professional with over 20 years of experience and a proven track record of leading and managing large-scale programs in international development. Her expertise spans strategic planning, full lifecycle project development, workforce planning, technical assistance, and capacity building for civil society organizations.

She holds a Master's degree in Public Health from The George Washington University, a Master of Education from Harvard University, COR certification, and a Secret security clearance. Kelly is passionate about advancing the health and well-being of vulnerable populations worldwide.

Skills & Expertise:

Project Management, Grants Management, Proposal Writing, Stakeholder Engagement, Capacity Strengthening, Global Health, Strategic Planning, Private Sector Engagement

Sectors of Work:

International Development, Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs, Public Health, Democracy & Governance

Languages Spoken:

English, Spanish

JOIN US